ECONOMIC PRIZES

SEVENTEENTH YEAR

In order to arouse an interest in the study of topics relating to commerce and industry, and to stimulate those who have a college training to consider the problems of a business career, a committee composed of

Professor J. Laurence Laughlin, University of Chicago, Chairman
Professor J. B. Clark, Columbia University
Professor Henry C. Adams, University of Michigan
Hon. Theodore E. Burton, New York City, and
Mr. Edwin F. Gay, New York City has been enabled, through the generosity of Messrs. Hart Schaffner & Marx of Chicago, to offer in 1921 four prizes for the best studies in the economic field.

In addition to the subjects printed below, a list of available subjects proposed in past years will be send on request. Attention is expressly called to the rule that a competitor is not confined to topics proposed in the announcements of this committee, but any other subject chosen must first be approved by it.

1. The economic effects of the accumulation of gold by the United States during the European War.
2. A study of the Policy of the Federal Reserve Board during the War.
3. The course of Foreign Exchange between the United States and the Neutral Countries during the War and the period of readjustment.
4. The Probable Future of the Skilled Artisan.
5. The effect of the European War on the Export Trade of Great Britain.
6. The Development of the World's Production of Meat.

Class B includes only those who, at the time the papers are sent in, are undergraduates of any American college. Class A includes any other Americans without restriction; the possession of a degree is not required of any contestant in this class, nor is any age limit set.

A First Prize of One Thousand Dollars, and A Second Prize of Five Hundred Dollars are offered to contestants in Class A.

A First Prize of Three Hundred Dollars, and A Second Prize of Two Hundred Dollars are offered to contestants in Class B. The committee reserves to itself the right to award the two prizes of $1,000 and $500 of Class A to undergraduates in Class B, if the merits of the papers demand it. The committee also reserves the privilege of dividing the prizes offered, if justice can be best obtained thereby. The winner of a prize shall not receive the amount designated until he has prepared his manuscript for the printer to the satisfaction of the committee.

The ownership of the copyright of successful studies will vest in the donors, and it is expected that, without precluding the use of these papers as theses for higher degrees, they will cause them to be issued in some permanent form.

Competitors are advised that the studies should be thorough, expressed in good English, and although not limited as to length, they should not be needlessly expanded. They should be inscribed with an assumed name, the class in which they are presented, and accompanied by a sealed envelope giving the real name and address of the competitor. No paper is eligible which shall have been printed or published in a form to disclose the identity of the author before the award shall have been made. If the competitor is in CLASS B, the sealed envelope should contain the name of the institution in which he is studying. The papers should be sent on or before June 1, 1921, to

Some Problems of the Peace Conference

BY

Charles Homer Haskins and Robert Howard Lord

xii + 307 pages. 6 maps. Price, $3.00

IN this volume Professors Haskins and Lord, two of the experts who accompanied President Wilson to Paris, set forth with intimate knowledge the territorial settlements of the treaties, including the relations to such questions as the League of Nations. Professor Haskins was attached to the American Delegation as Chief of the Division of Western Europe, and was the American member of the special committee of three which drafted the treaty clauses on Alsace-Lorraine and the Saar Valley. Professor Lord served as the American adviser on Poland and related problems both at Paris and in Poland itself.

"Few experts on subjects so complicated and so much in controversy are able to give their work the popular touch that both of these scholarly men have given the eight lectures included in this volume. Any person who has followed even the edges of the discussion as to territorial readjustments in Europe will delight in the plainness and the fairness with which the many sides of that subject are discussed in this volume." — Boston Herald.

"Each problem is discussed with a fullness and fairness and scholarly finish that make the book both interesting and valuable. . . . The Haskins and Lord volume will be found particularly valuable at the present hour." — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Foreign Rights and Interests in China

BY

W. W. WILLOUGHBY

Professor of Political Science at the Johns Hopkins University; Legal Adviser to the Chinese Republic, 1916-17

614 pages. 8vo. $7.50

THIS volume provides a statement of the rights of foreigners and the interests of foreign states in China as recognized in treaties with or relating to China or in other documents of an official or quasi-official character.

Because of its comprehensive and authoritative character, the work will be indispensable to merchants or banks having commercial or financial interests in China, to diplomatic and consular officials, to students of Far Eastern international politics, and to scholars interested in the history and present political and legal institutions of China.
